TUBE SEX FIEND JAILED

PREDATOR: Khurram Shahzad

A 30-YEAR-OLD man has been jailed for 21 months and placed on the sex offender register for 10 years for sexually assaulting a teenage girl on-board London Underground trains on two separate occasions.

Khurram Shahzad of York Road, Ilford, was sentenced on Wednesday, August 13 at Blackfriars Crown Court after pleading guilty at an earlier hearing to two counts of sexual assault and one count of harassment.

The court heard how Shahzad first assaulted the 17-year-old girl, from Brentwood, on Friday, August 30, 2013 on a westbound Central Line train between Liverpool Street and Oxford Circus.

Detective Sergeant Anna Fisk, from British Transport Police's Project Guardian team, said: "Shahzad first assaulted the victim on-board a crowded morning Tube train, approaching her from behind and assaulting her while other passengers stood close by, oblivious to what was happening.

"The victim was so scared she was unable to react, she tried to move away from Shahzad but he followed her around the crowded carriage. She got off the train at Oxford Circus and never reported the incident.

"Three days later, on Tuesday September 3, the same victim was travelling on a westbound Central Line train at a similar time when she was again assaulted by Shahzad in a busy carriage. The attack last several minutes and again, the victim was unable to escape due to other passengers stood close by."

The court heard how the victim saw Shahzad again every morning for the following three days, on her morning commute into central London. On those occasions she saw him before he was able to stand close to her and she was able to travel in separate parts of the train.

The victim then reported the incidents to police and, on Wednesday, September 11, plain clothes BTP detectives accompanied her on her usual route to work and she identified Shahzad during the journey and he was arrested.

DS Fisk added: "These attacks were not opportunistic but predatory, with Shahzad singling-out his victim and targeting her over a number of days. Understandably this was a very frightening experience for the victim.

"I would like to personally thank her for coming forward and reporting the incidents to the police and for her co-operation throughout our investigation.

"We will always fully investigate all reports of sexual offences and encourage victims to come forward."

Siwan Hayward, TfL's deputy director of enforcement and on-street operations, said: "The safety and security of our customers is our top priority and we will not tolerate unwanted sexual behaviour of any kind on our transport network.

"By encouraging victims to report these type of crimes, and through more proactive policing with our partners, we aim to stamp it out completely and ensure the network remains a safe environment for all."

This investigation forms part of Project Guardian, a long-term project involving Transport for London (TfL), the Metropolitan Police and the City of London Police, which aims to reduce sexual assault and unwanted sexual behaviour on public transport in London.

According to the TfL safety and security survey, around 15 per cent of females have experienced unwanted sexual behaviour on the network, with the majority not reporting it to police.

To help combat this problem, Project Guardian focuses on increasing awareness and confidence amongst the public to report unwanted sexual behaviour to the police or members of staff, particularly those offences which are often unreported, such as sexual touching, exposure, outraging public decency, lewd comments, leering and harassment.

There are around 2,000 police officers and PCSOs dedicated to patrolling London's transport network, who have been specially trained to deal with cases of unwanted sexual behaviour.

BTP's 61016 text number gives victims and witnesses a discreet way to report sexual offences.

Competition

Win Cole & Bright solar garden lights

THE lawn is mowed, the BBQ has been dusted off, the garden furniture is out and the parasol is up, so where better to enjoy the last weeks of the longest spell of sunny weather since 1910 than in the garden with friends and family?

Creating the right ambience when entertaining is key and solar lighting offers you a great way to instantly transform your garden into a beautifully lit night-time haven to enjoy the whole year round.

A new survey from the UK's leading solar lighting brand Cole & Bright has revealed that while half of people use lighting for decorative purposes, 16 per cent fear it would be too expensive to run. Thankfully, with super-efficient solar panels that recharge even on an overcast day, solar lighting offers you a reliable cost-effective lighting source every day of the year... it even automatically switches on at dusk and off at dawn!

So, with no wiring required and up to eight hours of night-time illumination, transform your garden into a softly lit personalised space in minutes, illuminating borders and beds, creating spot-lit pathways and creating beautiful mood lighting for garden parties and outdoor entertaining.

Air not fit to breathe

By Steve Neale

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

TOXIC pollution in east London is more than twice the legal limit, according to new figures released. Clean Air in London received the information from Defra after mounting a legal challenge against Mayor Boris Jonson's refusal to release the data.

The data shows deadly nitrogen dioxide gases from diesel engines in Redbridge and Waltham Forest was twice the legal limit of 40 micrograms per cubic metre in 2012, and 50 per cent higher than is legal in Barking and Dagenham.

Simon Birkett, director of Clean Air in London, said: "It's outrageous the mayor is hiding details about toxic fumes and that it has taken six months to force the government to release anything about them."

"The mayor must end his love affair with carcinogenic diesel exhaust and ban it from the most polluted places as coal burning was banned so successfully 60 years ago. Air pollution levels at these locations are twice the legal limits and World Health Organisation guidelines. Diesel exhaust is almost certainly the main local source of this air pollution."

Among the worst areas were Walthamstow Avenue, with 78mg of NO2 and Kingfisher Avenue, in Redbridge at 81mg. The most polluted part of Barking and Dagenham was Ripple Road at 64 mg, more than 50 per cent above the legal limit. Mr Birkett added: "Boris misleads people by talking about reductions in computer modelled emissions. Actual air pollution concentrations, used for setting health and legal limits, are the real test."

"Clean Air in London urges the mayor to publish estimated actual concentrations of NO2, PM2.5 and PM10 at each Air Quality Focus Area within two months after each calendar year end so Londoners can assess his progress."

The EU has already warned the UK government that it aims to issue heavy fines if pollution is not controlled in the capital.

Campaigners believe the mayor is looking to introduce technology to make vehicles switch to electric mode or other measures to reduce air pollution near monitors to avoid legal breaches. Although this would help the UK meet its legal requirements it would not impact significantly on the thousands of fatalities caused by pollution each year. Clean Air in London used barristers Gerry Facenna and Julianne Morrison of Monckton Chambers to get access to the previously secret information. The legal team used powerful European access to environmental information laws despite obstruction by Defra.

Clean Air London asked Defra for data on air pollutants at 187 air testing locations on February 26, 2014. The request was originally refused, but released after the legal team called for an internal review of Defra's refusal decision on March 23.

Defra missed the two month statutory deadline to complete the internal review and failed to respond until July 22, 2014.

Defra subsequently apologised for this failing.

Defra said that modelled air pollution concentrations at 47 of the 187 locations may not be representative of levels at the Air Quality Focus Area because equipment is more than 50 metres from it.

A spokesperson for the Mayor of London said: "Improving London's air quality is one of the Mayor's top priorities. As part of this work, he has identified these 187 focus areas where targeted action, such as green walls, retrofitting buses, and working with local businesses to reduce their emissions, will deliver significant benefits to the health of Londoners.

Since he was elected, the number of Londoners living in areas exceeding legal limits for NO2 has halved, while emissions of PM10s are down by 15 per cent and the NOx are down 20 per cent.

"The mayor is clear more needs to be done, which is why he has announced an Ultra Low Emission Zone in central London from 2020 which will be a world first game changer for the capital's air quality."

Government minister opens post office

A RED ribbon has been cut to mark the opening of a new post office.

Iain Duncan Smith, MP for Chingford and Woodford Green, was the guest of honour at the launch of Chingford Mount Post Office last week.

As part of Post Office plans to modernise the network and extend opening hours for customers, the new modernised site within Nisa Local has five serving positions, two modern screened serving positions and three new-style open plan counters.

Iain Duncan Smith, government minister for work and pensions, said: "I'm pleased to be here today to formally open the new-look Chingford Mount Post Office and I would like to congratulate Kamal and Jay Mandalia on their hard work, the new branch looks fantastic."

"The Post Office is vital to the community in Chingford Mount and I'm sure that the new improved branch, and the longer opening hours, will be warmly welcomed by the community."

The branch is open from 8am to 6pm Monday to Saturday, offering customers an extra nine hours of office service every week.

Chingford Mount postmaster, Kamal Mandalia said: "We are delighted to be welcoming customers to our newly modernised branch. I am very pleased to be officially launching it today for the community."

"I'd like to thank the local community for their continued support and use of the branch."

Face it, Erin's a model for M&S

SCREEN: Erin Holmes appeared in a Marks and Spencer advert.

A YOUNG performer has become the face of a new advertising campaign.

Erin Holmes, from Highams Park, was chosen as one of the faces for Mark and Spencers and the chain's 'Back to School' campaign.

The four-year-old was put forward by arts company, Make Believe, based in Leytonstone, where Erin is a student.

Her proud mother, Laura Donoghue, said: "Erin is very chatty and the advert involved talking about putting a shirt on. It's a cute clip and Erin's enthusiasm about the smallest of things shone through.

"The advert is 20 seconds, that's relatively long in television terms. Hopefully she we have many more successful auditions to come.

"I am very proud of Erin. She is really pleased about being on the big screen."

Erin went for two auditions in central London before directors called her mother earlier this month.

The advert was aired for the first time on Thursday, August 14.

Police appeal after assault

POLICE are appealing for a possible victim of crime to come forward.

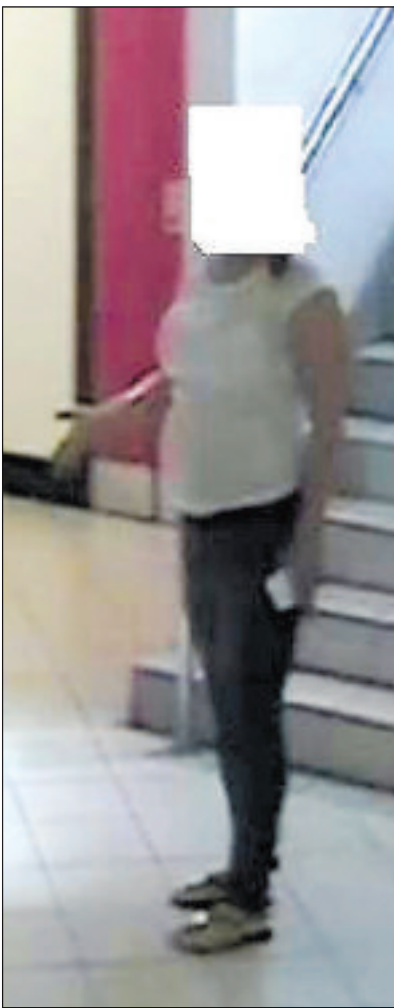

It is believed that the woman shown in the image could be the victim of an assault that took place on Monday, June 30, at approximately 1:45pm at Selbourne Walk Shopping Centre, Walthamstow E17.

The woman appeared to be walking to the toilet area of the shopping centre when she was approached by a man who took hold of her arm. A confrontation between the two occurred where words appeared to be exchanged.

The lady is described as a white woman, possibly of Eastern European or Turkish descent. She is approximately 5ft 5" tall, around 30 years old. Her hair was dark and worn in a ponytail. She was wearing a white top, dark leggings and light footwear.

If you are this woman or you think you may know who she is please contact Detective Constable Paul Brown of Walthamstow CID on 07855 30686 or by email at paul.brown4@met.pnn.police.uk

We would like to stress that this woman is a potential victim who may be able to assist officers with an ongoing investigation. She is not wanted by police in connection with a crime.

VICTIM: Police would like to speak with this woman

Suggestions wanted to improve air quality

RESIDENTS living along the Selborne Road area of Walthamstow have been written to by Waltham Forest Council for comments and suggestions on the proposals as part of the Selborne Road Air Quality Improvement Scheme.

The council has secured funding from Transport for London and The Mayor's Air Quality Fund to improve conditions in the Selborne Road area and has sought residents' views in advance of improvements planned this autumn.

The closing date for responses to the consultation is September 5. If you would like to comment on the Selborne Road Air Quality Improvement Scheme and have not received a leaflet through your door, make sure you get in touch by email at traffic.scheme@walthamforest.gov.uk or by post to Freepost Plus RSAS-BKTL-

GGA, Project Development, Waltham Forest Council, Low Hall Depot, Argall Avenue, E10 7AS.

Please provide your name and address so we can relate your response to where you live. Additional information, including detailed plans of the proposals, is available at www.walthamforest.gov.uk - use the search function to find 'traffic schemes' or phone 020 8496 3000.

Textile banks start to take off

The number of textile banks in the borough has skyrocketed from a mere seven to 47, meaning the amount of clothing recycled has more than doubled in the last six months.

Now that 18 of the borough's 20 wards have at least one textile bank, residents are beginning to make better use of them, with 9.5 tonnes collected in May, compared to 4.1 tonnes collected in November last year.

Most clothes, shoes and textiles can be recycled. Donations should be clean, dry, bagged up and shoes tied in pairs so that they don't get separated. Textile Recycling for Aid and International Development (TRAID) are unable to reuse single shoes or recycle wet clothing, duvets, pillows and blankets.

"We've really stepped up our game when it comes to textile recycling in the borough," said Councillor Clyde Loakes, deputy leader and cabinet member for environment.

"By working with the charity TRAIID, we have seen the number of banks in the borough increase dramatically and as tonnages rise so more of what our residents discard can be reused or recycled instead of being thrown away with general refuse."

The council's latest campaign to encourage residents to recycle more is called 'Yes you can' and highlights the fact that 70 per cent of household waste is recyclable. Things like plastics, tin cans, glass, paper and plastic bags can be put into residents' green bins, rather than their black bins, diverting them from incineration or landfill.

The council also offers a free bulky waste collection service that will take away things like old furniture and mattresses. With the addition of more facilities for people to recycle clothes, shoes and textiles, recycling has never been easier.

There are of course many charity shops in the borough that will accept items that are still wearable, and in addition to the increase in the number of textile banks around the borough TRAIID are also now offering to collect unwanted clothes and shoes from the homes of Waltham Forest residents for free.

The service can be booked online or by phone, allowing you to donate to charity and rid yourself of clutter without any hassle. Collections take place at agreed times so that donations are not left outside where they are vulnerable to theft or bad weather.

A scheduled pickup is also great news for those who may find it difficult to carry donations to a textile bank or charity shop. All the charity asks is that people using this service have a minimum donation of at least one large bin liner sized bag.

For more information visit www.traid.org.uk to find out where your nearest textile bank is or how to arrange a collection. You can also phone on 020 8733 2580 or email recycling@traid.org.uk

TESTIMONIALS of our Success

Really professional install in my Victorian terrace, they were able to harmonise the design and detailed work with the original features of my house. Whole house fitted, including a new backdoor, in three days.
Excellent work, thanks
Mr Ramirez E17

The fitters were friendly, neat, tidy and efficient. Many people have commented on how good the new windows look. I would happily recommend dolphin to family and friends.

"The team at Dolphin are brilliant, I would recommend them to anyone"

Topless Rolls-Royce is in the pipeline

FOR THE CHOP: the planned convertible will build on the success of previous models

By Mike Torpey

LUXURY car icon Rolls-Royce is to build a new open-top tourer, set to hit the streets by mid-2016.

It will build on the success of the Phantom, Ghost and Wraith models with the promise of the highest quality luxury, style and elegance plus an exhilarating driving experience.

Rolls-Royce chief Torsten Müller-Ötvös said: "I am truly delighted to confirm the development of our new model which will open an exciting new chapter in the great story of Rolls-Royce Motor Cars."

"We are currently developing an exciting and thoroughly contemporary interpretation of a pinnacle drophead tourer which will introduce even more discerning men and women to Rolls-Royce ownership."

And the news was also welcomed by company chairman Peter Schwarzenbauer who added: "The announcement of a new Rolls-Royce model is always a seminal moment in the automobile industry."

"When it arrives in 2016, this elegant and sensuous new car will build on the success of our current models and will play a key part in fulfilling Rolls-Royce Motor Cars' commitment to long-term sustainable growth."

The new car is currently undergoing a rigorous process of prototype testing as it enters its next stage of development.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(f)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

HAMMERS BREAK PALACE DEFENCE

West Ham

Barclays Premier League.
Crystal Palace 1
West Ham United 3
Brian Jeeves reporting from Selhurst Park.

IMPRESSIVE West Ham United relieved some of the pressure on manager Sam Allardyce with a comfortable 3-1 Barclays Premier League victory over London rivals Crystal Palace at Selhurst Park.

Both sides went into the game looking for an immediate reaction to shattering setbacks on the opening day. Palace, still reeling from the departure of manager Tony Pulis, went down by the odd goal in three after conceding a late Aaron Ramsey goal at the Emirates against Arsenal, while West Ham suffered a similar fate as bitter rivals Tottenham Hotspur triumphed at Upton Park thanks to a dramatic strike deep into injury time from debutant defender Eric Dier.

Under fire Allardyce had seen his charges lose six of their previous seven Premier League matches, with many fans calling for his head. But all that seemed to pale into insignificance compared to the weeks shock events in South London.

Negotiations between Palace and managerial target Malky Mackay had emphatically hit the buffers, amidst a sea of allegations aimed at him and his former head of recruitment Iain Moody, by Vincent Tan, chairman of the Scotsman's former employers Cardiff City. Indeed, in the wake of Wednesday's breakdown between Palace and Mackay, a source close to the Selhurst Park club had powerfully exclaimed "This is the darkest day in the clubs history".

Despite tasting defeat last time out, caretaker-manager Keith Millen was relatively pleased with his teams opening day display, and it was Palace who were first to threaten. Marouane Chamakh was inches away from heading home after Martin Kelly had displayed trickery down the right.

But West Ham soon found their rhythm and started to dictate possession while asking questions of their own. Mauro Zarate's effort was blocked after Ricardo Vaz Te had picked him out, while Mark Noble was similarly thwarted following good work from Carlton Cole.

Zarate was proving to be a thorn in the Palace side and was starting to set his sights. Firstly, miss control cost him a clear strike at goal, while Eagles keeper Julian Speroni made an unorthodox stop from his low effort. Nevertheless, the former Velez Sarafield man wasn't to be denied, and just after the half hour mark he spectacularly broke the deadlock. Noble's shot was only half cleared and Zarate produced a crisp right foot volley that flew beyond Speroni from fully twenty-five yards.

West Ham were buoyed. O'Brien fired past a post after Stewart Downing had done the donkey work, but before Palace showed any signs of recovering, the visitors grabbed a second. Downing cut in from the right before dispatching a composed finish past a fully extended Speroni from just outside the box.

Palace were shell-shocked, but full credit to their fans who did their upmost to lift their beleaguered charges. However, it was West Ham who continued to look menacing. Speroni had to grasp Vaz Te's shot at the second attempt, while the Portuguese striker was agonisingly close to turning in Aaron Cresswell's delicious centre.

And it was West Ham who began the second period the way they'd finished the first. James Tomkins headed against the underside of the bar with the Palace rear-guard at sixes and sevens.

The home side looked flat and clearly needed something special to give them a foothold in the game, and it was Chamakh who provided it, firing a fantastic long-range strike beyond Hammers keeper Adrian to half the deficit and bring Selhurst Park to life.

Palace started to zip the ball around with a little more zest. The impressive Barry Bannan warmed Adrian's palms after a nice interchange of passes, then Fraizer Campbell lost his footing at a crucial moment after Chamakh had worked him in.

But before the home side could make further inroads, West Ham all but settled the outcome. Tomkins deep dead ball wasn't dealt with by Damien Delaney, and Carlton Cole was on hand to thump home the loose ball for the Hammers third.

In the final stages Speroni made flying saves to deny both Cheikhou Kouyate and substitute Diafra Sakho, while at the other end, Adrian rebuffed Glenn Murray after the Palace man had slipped past Cresswell.

However, Palace never really looked like recovering. After the game, Keith Millen suggested that it had been a tough week for his player, and described his team performance as "lacklustre and "not good enough.

An upbeat Sam Allardyce said: "I saw that performance last week and I was glad to see it again this week. "The quality of our finishing was absolutely superb today.

And Allardyce was quick to heap praise on first half goal scorers Zarate and Downing, exclaiming Crystal Palace couldn't complain.

"They couldn't defend against the quality of those goals."

He added: "It was a very important result, and a very important performance."

Crystal Palace: Speroni, Kelly, Hangeland, Delaney, Ward, Bannan (Williams 70), Jedinak, O'Keefe (Murray 83), Bolasie, Chamakh, Campbell (Gayle 70).

West Ham United: Adrian, O'Brien, Reid, Tomkins, Cresswell, Downing (Diamé 89), Kouyate, Noble, Vaz Te, Zarate (Poyet 82), Cole (Sakho 67).

Non-league round-up

Tough time in Conference

by Brian Jeeves

IT was a difficult weekend for the regions Vanarama Conference clubs, with both Braintree Town and Concord Rangers tasting defeat.

In the Premier Division, Braintree narrowly went down 3-2 at Lincoln City, with Davis (pen) and Brundle supplying their consolation goals, while South Division Concord Rangers came a cropper against Eastbourne Borough at the Aspect Arena. Tony Stokes fond the net late on for the Beach Boys, but a brace from McCallum and one from Pacquette secured a 3-1 win for the visitors.

But it was better news for Chelmsford City who picked up a point and scored their first goal of the campaign against Sutton United at the Melbourne Stadium. Glen Southam fired the Clarets ahead from the penalty spot only for an own goal by James Love to restore parity.

In the Ryman Premier League, Canvey Island left it late to clinch the points. A John Sands strike followed by a last minute Marlon Agyakwa goal saw off Enfield Town at Park Lane in front of a decent 352 crowd.

Grays Athletic were our big winners of the day, trouncing Hampton & Richmond Borough 4-0 at the Bevee Stadium. Jay Leader, Jamie Guy, Lloyd Harrington and an own goal from Billy Jeffreys secure Grays triumph, while there were draws for Witham Town, 3-3 at Harrow Borough, and East Thurrock United, 1-1 with Hendon.

Junior Dadson was on target for AFC Hornchurch, but the Ircins crashed 2-1 at Leatherhead, and it was even worse news for Bilericay Town as goals from Ryan Moss (2) Charlie Allen (2) and Zachary Attwood condemned the Blues to a 5-1 setback at Margate, Richard Halle grabbed Town's consolation.

In the North Division, two goals from Steven Carvell and one from Daniel Callaway helped Barkingside recover "Roy of the Rovers style" to beat Cheshunt, 'Side had trailed 2-0 at the break. And two second half goals were enough to see Aveley home against Chatham Town Petrit Elbi and Marcus Elliott the men on target as the Miller triumphed 2-1.

Maldon & Tiptree edged out Romford by the odd goal in three, and despite an early goal from Courtney White, Brentwood Town had to be content with a 1-1 draw with Thamesmead Town.

There was an entertaining affair at Needham Market where the home side won a dead-end encounter with Tilbury 5-3, and Redbridge also conceded five, going down 5-1 at Soham Town Rangers.

Great Wakering Rovers remain rooted to the bottom of the table after Harlow Town ran out 4-2 winners in a lively encounter at Burroughs Park. Stuart Hepburn and Tony Jacobs found the net for the home side in front of a respectable 134 crowd, nevertheless Rovers remain without a point from five outings.

The game between Watham Abbey and Burnham Ramblers was abandoned after 20 minutes following a suspected leg break for Abbey man Ben Bradbury.

In the Essex Senior League there was a huge win for Haringey Borough who secured a 10-1 win at Enfield 1893, a result that prompted Enfield manager Paul Norris to stand down immediately after the game. Clapton won the Newham derby by a single goal at Tower Hamlets, while Basildon United saw off relegated Waltham Forest by two goals to one. Southend Manor picked up a 3-1 win at Greenhouse London and Bowers & Pitsea drew 0-0 at Barking. Hullbridge Sports went down 3-2 at Newham it was the same outcome at Sawbridgeworth Town, where visitors Ilford snatched the points. In the other game, impressive FC Romania saw off Takeley 3-1.

O's still a 'work in progress' after draw

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 0 Walsall 0
Sky Bet League One
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium.

ORIENT are still without a home success after winless Walsall proved too tough a nut to crack on Saturday.

Despite enjoying the majority of the early possession, the O's failed to stamp their authority and apart from Andy Holden nearly putting through his own goal on six minutes - under pressure from Darius Henderson - the Saddlers looked comfortable.

Indeed, it was Adam Legdzins who was the busier of the two glovemen and had to react well to fend off efforts from Anthony Forde, before - almost in frustration - O's Jobi McNuff went on a solo run, but his effort only found the side-netting on the stroke of half-time.

Having arguably got out of jail with a debatable decision at Bristol in midweek, Legdzins continued to enjoy good fortune ten minutes after the restart by completely misjudging Matt Baudry's back pass. But, Forde's cheeky back-heel went wide of a gaping goal from three yards.

Forde's 'miss of the century' at least stirred the O's and Dean Cox twice went close, before the visitors had the east Londoners pegged back for long periods.

The O's had to dig in with Baudry and skipper, Nathan Clarke outstanding as they extended their unbeaten run to four games.

A relieved Orient boss, Russell Slade, admitted: "I was a little bit frustrated we didn't get the win today - but I am pleased with the clean sheet.

"Walsall got right behind the ball and they were organized. They were difficult to break down and difficult opposition - as they always are."

With so many new signings, Slade added: "As a group, we are still a work in progress. But, I'm sure we will improve, as this is a good group. Although, I don't expect to be doing any business in the last week of the transfer window - but the emergency loan option does exist."

Saddlers boss and former Orient favourite, Dean Smith, said: "I was very pleased with the performance and the fact that we bounced back after our midweek defeat."

Orient defender, Elliot Omozusi, added: "We were very much in the groove today after a shaky start to the season and obviously pleased with the clean sheet."

The former Fulham man revealed: "We are very much a work in progress - with all the new lads coming in and getting used to the way we play. But, we are going in the right direction."

STUDENT TESTIMONIAL

Agnieszka
HNC Fashion and Textiles

I have always been interested in fashion, so I decided to enrol on the Fashion HNC at Waltham Forest College. The tutors at the College are really amazing! I've now progressed onto the HND and after that I will probably go to university.
